Disclaimer

Freedom Christian University (FCU) is not a Title IV University. Therefore, students are not eligible for Federal funding. Since FCU is not a Title IV, Title IV may not accept credits from FCU. Transfer of credits from FCU to other institutions of learning are solely up to the discretion and desire of the institution where the student is applying. If you plan to transfer to another institution, it is your responsibility as a student to inquire whether or not the educational institution into which you plan to transfer concerning the transferability of credits received through any other institution, including FCU in advance of enrollment. Our tuition is extremely low compared to most other institutions of secular nature. (This may be a reason for not accepting credit from FCU.) You can earn your degree based on quality education from FCU without being bankrupted or owe the government your life.
