

Agreement

[] I hereby certify that all informational provided herein to Freedom Christian University (FCU) is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I have discussed all my admission process and responsibilities with and Admission Advisor and understand the regulations governing FCU. I fully agree with the policies and standards of FCU and am willing to uphold them and live by them if I am accepted as a student. I agree and promise to pay my tuition on time and the late fees (if added) if I pay late. I further authorize any legal action be taken against me if I fail to keep these said promises. I further acknowledge that no other representations or promises have been made to me in writing, electronically, orally, implied or explicit, other than what was discussed and agreed during the meeting. I further understand that degrees offered by FCU are strictly biblically based in nature and may not be accepted in the secular sector, especially the government regulated sectors.

Certification

[] FCU uses and base its teaching solely on the Holy Bible, which is the Word of God. I understand and accept that regardless of my doctrinal beliefs (if any), I must accept the Bible as the sole authority for my class. I agree to display at all times the highest level of professionalism and responsibilities as a student of this institution and maintain a level of integrity that is beyond reproach.
